

Note on virus infection prevention

---

We would like to ask visitors and participants to the event to exercise infection control measures against coronavirus pneumonia and influenza, by wearing a facemask, frequently washing hands and gargling. Please endeavor to practice cough etiquette.

We also ask that you carefully consider giving up coming and not push yourself to participate if you have symptoms like coughing and fever. Our staff and exhibitors' personnel may wear facemasks. We ask for your kind understanding.